Masterworks Exhibition

The "Meet and Greet" the artists held at the Delaware Art Museum's Outlooks Gallery on December 4th was a great success. The turnout was wonderful, and the exhibition looks amazing.

The exhibition will be up until January 17, 2010. You don't want to miss it!

We created a wonderful catalogue for the exhibit and have copies available. [REDACTED]

The book contains the bios of each master artist and a photo of their work, as well as information about the history of Delaware By Hand. The price to members is $25. If you are interested, please send an email to Connie Ballato at treasurer@delawarebyhand.org
